

FALCON 73

An aerial, black and white photograph of Saint Augustine's College. The main building is a long, two-story structure with a series of vertical columns or pilasters along its facade. In front of the building is a large, paved area, possibly a parking lot or a courtyard, with some landscaping. The background shows a dense line of trees. The text is overlaid on the lower half of the image.

Falcon 73 Dedic

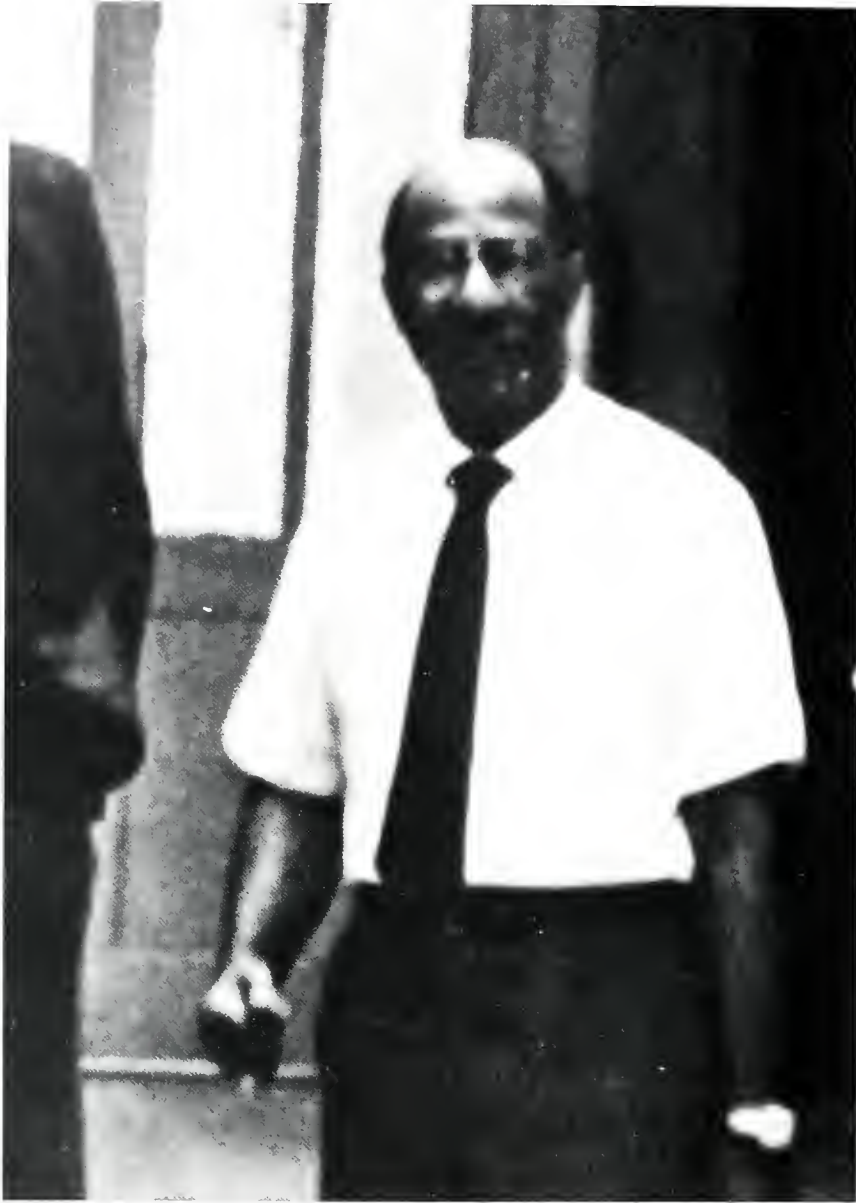

No words can express the warmth and love that Dr. Forte has exhibited since she has been at Saint Augustine's. Her understanding and concern go far beyond the classroom. Many have said that Dr. Forte has been their guiding light to a successful and meaningful position in society. Her ability to relate to students not only academically, but on a one to one basis is what the Falcons as well as her co-workers consider a characteristic of the perfect instructor. Congratulations to one of Saint Augustine's finest, Dr. Minnie T. Forte.

In Memoriam

As assistant to the vice president for development, Mr. Brown won the esteem of everyone in this area. His gentle and genial personality will not soon be forgotten. A memorial service was held for him at the College Chapel on September 12.

You who think me less than what i am
Owe me for my time spent
Under that sun, where i toiled
Never and knew my Greatness

Gone are my patience and
Inkling of peaceful times
For i stand firm now and
T rue to the belief that Evil eventually must come to those who Do it first.

Because of all these things, i
Lived for just that day
And should it come sooner
Closer will i be, to Keeping the pledge left to me by my ancestors.

Is It Because I'm Black

The dark brown shades of my skin only add color to my tears
Oh, oh, that splash against my hollow bones that rocks my soul
Looking back over my Thoughts, dreams that I once knew
Wondering why my dreams never came true.

Is it because I'm black
Somebody tell me what can
I do, Oh Lord,
Oh, somethin' is holding
me back
Is it because I'm black.

In this world of no pity
I was raised in the ghetto of the city,
yeah, Oh Lord,
Momma, she worked so hard to earn every penny
Somethin' is holdin'
me back
Is it because I'm black.

Like a child stealing his first piece of candy and got caught
Feepon' around life's corners somewhere I got lost.
Somethin' is holdin' me Back, I wonder, it is because I'm black
Somebody tell me what can
I do, will I survive or will I die.

J. Jones, G. Watts and S. Johnson

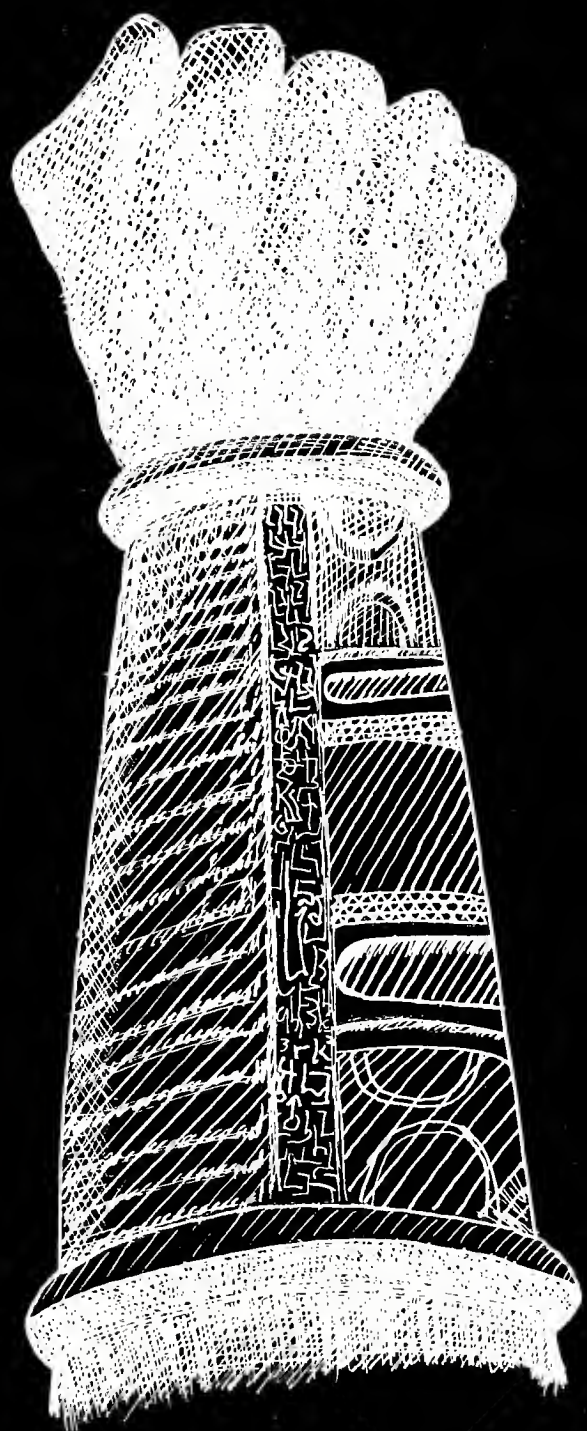

Black is being beautiful and knowing it! Those who imitate another culture, fearing that they will be rejected because their hair is not, "straight" enough, their lips not thin enough, and their skin too dark, can lay no claim to ever having touched the souls of Black folks for they are steering away from the central theme of their heritage

Here I am Strong,
Proud, and Determined.
And When I Am Raised to
My Full Potential,
I Am the True
Essence of “Power to My People”

STUDENT

LIFE

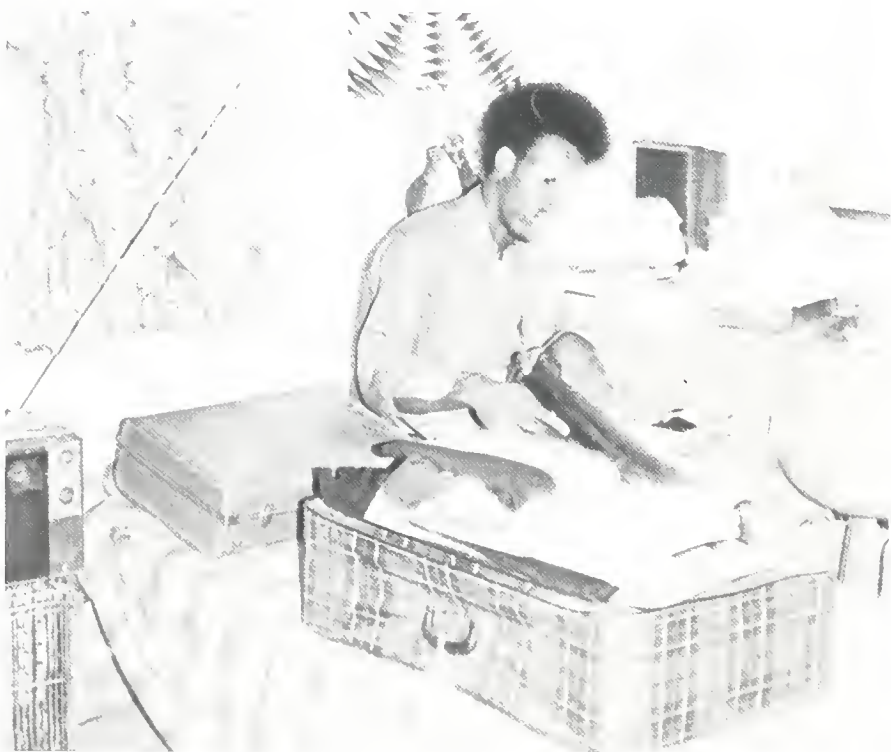

YOU GOT TO MOVE IF YOU PLAN TO GET AHEAD

"FALCONS ON THE MOVE"

"GUESS WHO'S COMING TO DINNER?"

WE LEARN, NOT THROUGH ISOLATION, BUT THROUGH ASSOCIATION . . .

IT'S A REVOLUTION OF THE MIND

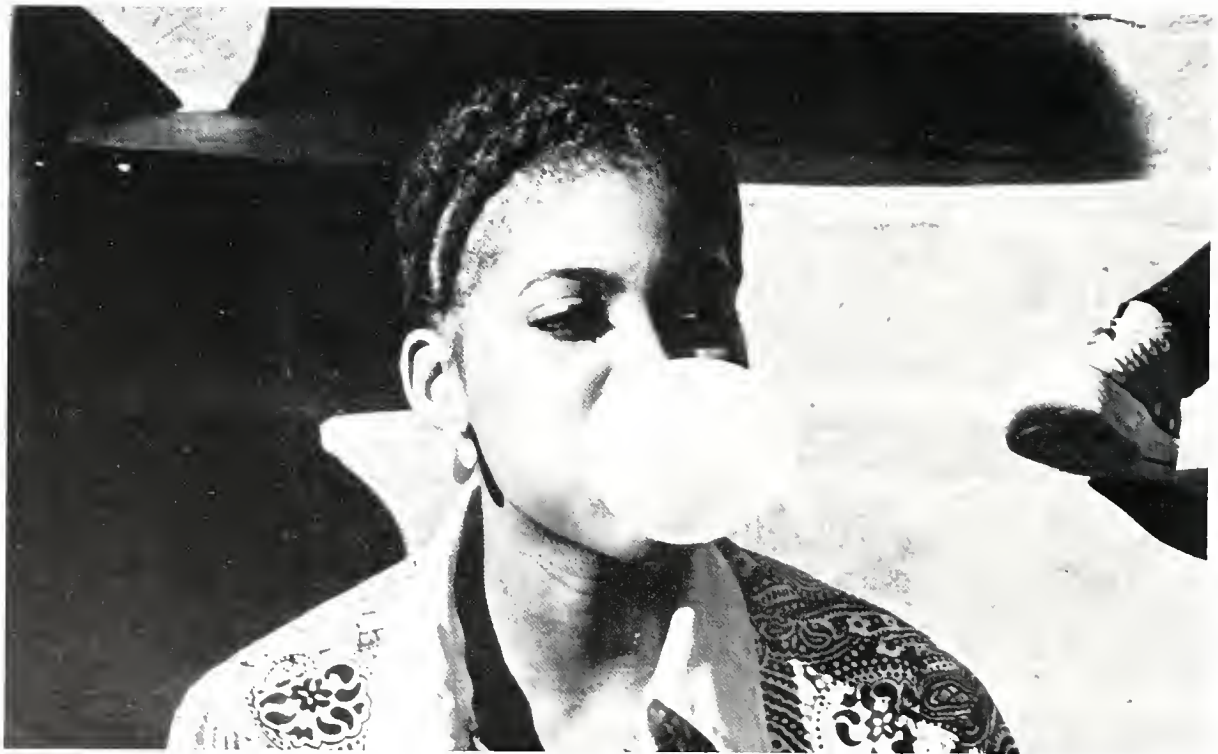

GETTING TO KNOW YOUR FELLOW MAN

WAIT GUYS I'M NOT READY!

THE BIGGER THE BETTER!

GET ON THE GOOD FOOT

THE MAN WITH THE PLANS

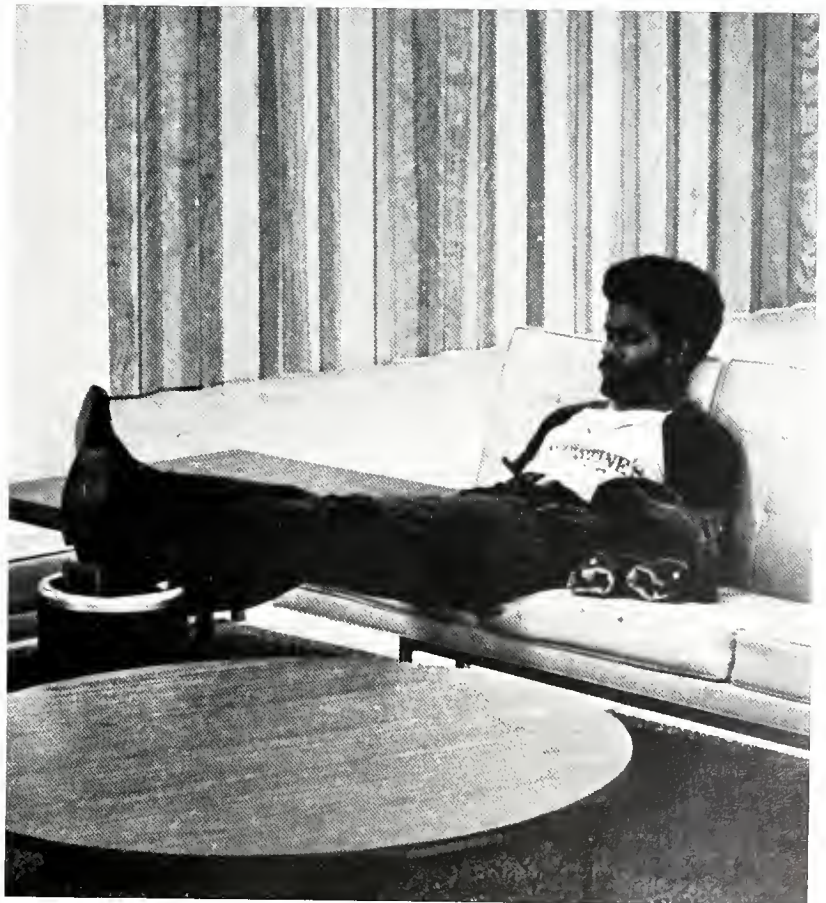

IF YOU PUT YOUR DUTIES FIRST, ALL OTHERS FALL IN PLACE

WAKE UP TIME IS PASSING

THE BEGINNING . . .

THE END

Hay! what are you doing to my head?

Jabar, eat your HEART out!!

Getting down to serious business.

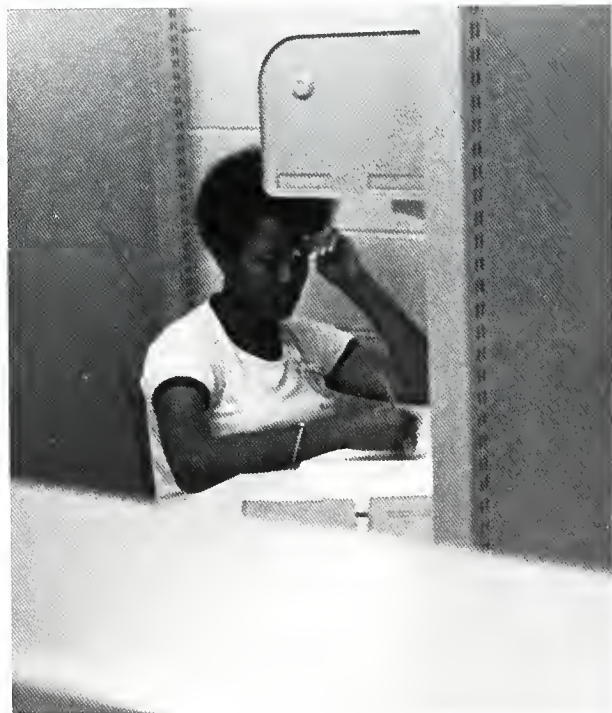

This biology is getting better all the time!!

"Mother, do I have to?"

"Are you sure you know what you're doing?"

"I came here, paid my money, and I'll be !?!? if I'm gonna waste it!"

"Harmony is the Key for sisters and brothers."

The campus-a picture of true tranquility.

Ebony exoltation means being proud, proud to say

That you are our blackwoman and you are reigning today.

Show us now all of your black pride that's coming your way.

Ebony Exoltation.

Ebony Exoltation means showing love for our black nation.

Though fears may sometimes divide us, and jealousy won't leave us alone; Jackie it is up to you to show us our way home, our way home.

Ebony Exoltation.

Ebony Exoltation means having pride in ourselves.
We've got to show all of those white demons that black is not the color of fear.

Jackie you have got to let them know that we are standing here.

Jackie please show them that we are standing here.
AND WE SHALL NOT BE MOVED!!!

ACTIVITIES

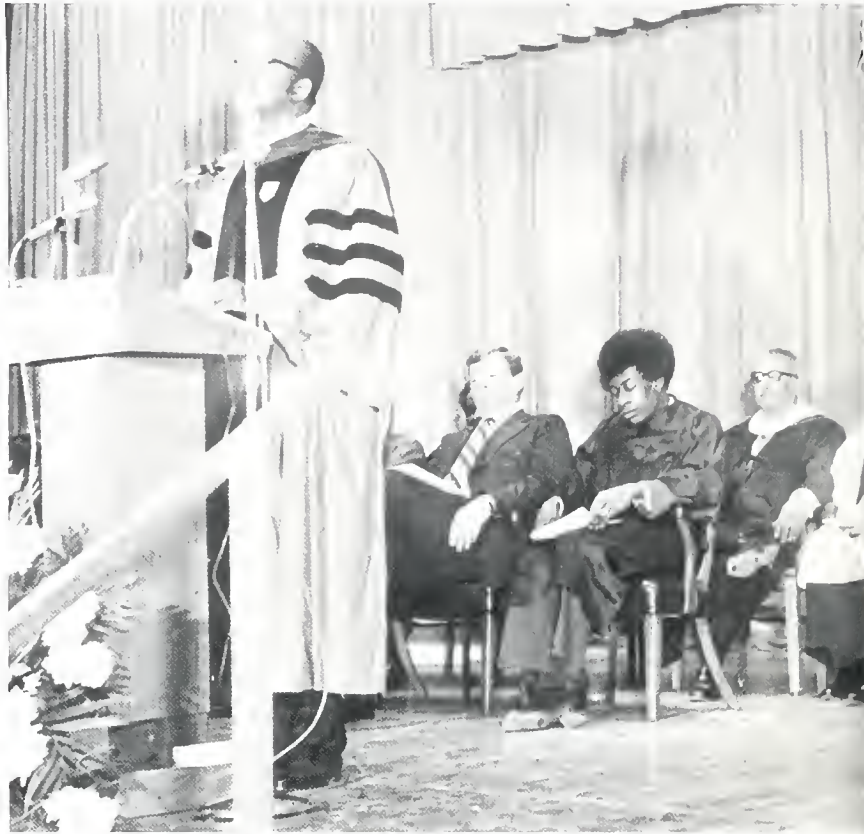

106th Annual Convocation

"A calling To Fulfill"

With the many opportunities now open to Black People, President Robinson challenged the student to prepare themselves so that they can make this system serve the blacks by being at the places where the decisions are made-on corporate boards, county commissions, and municipal boards at all level.

Greetings were brought by the Honorable Thomas W. Bradshaw, mayor, City of Raleigh; Peter Holden, president National Association of Alumni; and Preston Simms, Student Government President.

KNEELING: Cheryl Bowden, Cynthia Coe, Maressa Allen, Gwendolyn Jefferson, and Yvonne Rodgers.

Gamma Xi Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. was founded on March 26, 1949 here at Saint Augustine's College. As in previous years the members have carried on traditional projects. Alpha Kappa Alpha women hold as their guiding light the motto: "Advancement through knowledge and Achievements".

Alpha Phi Alpha

Alpha Phi Alpha, the first black fraternity was founded on the campus of Cornell University, Ithica, New York, on December 4, 1906.

The ideals and principles upon which this fraternity was founded influenced many great men to join. Besides brotherhood, Alpha Phi Alpha is based on knowledge and achievement.

Sigma Gamma Rho

LEFT TO RIGHT: Edith Shokes, Cynithia Murphy

Sigma Gamma Rho, the youngest of the Greek letter collegiate sororities and now an interracial organization, was organized November 12, 1922, by seven young teachers in Indianapolis, Indiana. On December 30, 1929, the sorority was incorporated as a National Collegiate sorority and a charter was granted to Alpha chapter at Butler University.

The sorority strives to foster ideals and encourage education and up-right living among women.

Kappa Alpha Psi

LEFT TO RIGHT: Withey Davis, Ronald Roberts, Marc Sherman and Sam Spencer

Kappa Alpha Psi was founded on the campus of Indiana University in Bloomington, Indiana, January 5, 1911. The chief aim of Kappa Alpha Psi is to provide the climate within which students may acquire a sound moral, intellectual and social basis for effective living.

Kappa Alpha Psi seeks to implement this by exerting beneficial influence upon the attitudes of members and pledges; providing leadership training, assisting choice of careers curricula, encouraging ACHIEVEMENT, fostering sociality and inculcating principles of democratic living. Therefore, Gamma Omicron Chapter impressed unity among its' members, perseverance toward tis' goal, and Phi Nu Pi as it's motto.

Gamma Sigma Sigma

The Constitutional Convention of Gamma Sigma Sigma Sorority was held at the Beekman Tower in New York City on October 12, 1952. For three days girls at the convention devoted their time devising a national constitution acceptable to all. It was hard work, but those present at the meeting were determined to produce a constitution worthy of the principles of the group.

The purpose of this sorority shall be to assemble college and university women in the spirit of service to humanity. It shall serve to develop friendship among women of all races and creeds through work side by side and through the fulfillment of those goals common to all. The sisters here at the "Aug" strive to put their motto, "UNITY IN SERVICE", into their everyday life.

Delta Sigma Theta

Delta Sigma Theta is a National Greek-letter Sorority Founded at Howard University in Washington, D. C. on January 13, 1913. The founders envisioned an organization of College women pledged to serious endeavors, community services and to promote high cultural standards among its members of the larger society in which it existed.

Today there are over fifty thousand members and more than three hundred chapters in forty states and the Republic of Haiti and Liberia. On January 12, 1963, at its fiftieth anniversary celebrated in Washington, D.C., President John F. Kennedy, the guest of honor, congratulated the organization on its service to the country.

Omega Psi Phi

FRONT ROW: Dwight Jordan and Larkins Williams BACK ROW (RIGHT TO LEFT): Reginald Ritter, James Smith, Henry Roberts, Henry Byrd, Curtis Patrick, Clyde Custerlow, John Jones Fenton Leslie, Alvin Clanton, Edward Boston and Ronald Ritter.

Omega Psi Phi Fraternity was founded on the campus of Howard University on November 17, 1911. The purpose of our fraternity is to mold and shape young college men, who meet the general and specific standards of Fraternity-ship, into a finer product--a whole man.

Zeta Phi Beta

LEFT TO RIGHT: Annetta Reid and Sylvia Lewis

Zeta Phi Beta was founded on the campus of Howard University in 1920. As a link in the great international chain, that is striving to make meaningful its ideals of Service, Scholarship and Sisterhood. Through all its endeavors, the chapter has been guided by its motto, "Finer Womanhood." We would hope that our chapter accepts the challenge in becoming a cognizant of their responsibility to continue seeking a deeper meaning in God; a feeling for one's fellow man and strive for a knowledge; not blindness, apathy or prejudice but the freedom to be creative.

Phi Beta Sigma

KNEELING (LEFT TO RIGHT): Clayton Wilkins, Willie Foreman, Bennie Bryant and Thomas Glover
STANDING: Melvin Graham, Leonard Green, Johnnie Garrett, Howard Toomer, Charles Williams, Dwight Black, Gaddius Faulcon and Donald Irvin.

Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity Inc., was founded on the campus of Howard University on January 9, 1914. Beta XI Chapter was organized here at Saint Augustine's College in 1944.

The motto of the Fraternity is "Culture for Service and Service to Humanity." For the Men of Sigma this more than a motto, it is a personal mode of living, in that all activities are undertaken with the rendering of service. Sigma has been energetic in educational, social and business programs geared towards the betterment of our fellow black man and society as a whole.

Nu Gamma Mchumba

Nu Gamma Alpha

Nu Gamma Alpha Inc., was organized at Howard University in 1962, since then Nu Gamma Alpha has been spreading rapidly in the CIAA. Nu Gamma Alpha was organized on Saint Augustine's campus on October 17, 1970.

As a Nu Gamma, our main objective is to engage in a complete and all encompassing spectrum of social activities. Nu Gamma Alpha does not propose to be a charity or fund raising organization and therefore, confine its activities to social and business functions.

The Drill Team in their famous breakdown step. Breakdown Sisters breakdown!

The chief emphasis of the 1972-73 varsity cheerleaders is to encourage the student's school spirit and good sportsmanship. To accomplish this aim, Carolyn Lilly, headcheerleader, and the entire squad, have introduced many snappy new cheers to encourage school spirit.

This squad is one of the best! Cooperation, hard work, real school spirit, creativeness, good looks and conscientious effort paid off well, for the student body responded admirably. The great spirit and response which the student body display reflected the respect which the students have for the cheerleaders.

Oh, lets not forget our school mascot who also encourage alot of spirit too, Willie Haney, who is dress as a Falcon!

Cheerleaders in one of their unhappy moods.
